

INTRODUCTION

Last year the Ohio State Journal on Dispute Resolution (JDR), expanded its publications to include a third issue. Although new to JDR, the format is not unique. This issue is a continuation of the work by Carole L. Hinchcliff, Acquisitions and Collection Librarian at The Ohio State University College of Law. With financial assistance from the National Institute for Dispute Resolution, the Ohio State Bar Foundation, The Ohio State University College of Law, and the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Dispute Resolution, Ms. Hinchcliff developed DISPUTE RESOLUTION: A SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1987-88 Edition. The book is a compilation of bibliographic entries of books and articles written in the field of alternative dispute resolution in the years 1987 and 1988. The JDR staff has continued this work, and this issue is the third compilation of entries published by the JDR (1989-91 issues).

The alternative dispute resolution field is growing so rapidly that we were not able to cover the entire field. Although entries appear from Canada, Great Britain, Australia, Spain, and other countries, this book is only a sampling of the works available in the international area. We have tried to limit the articles to those that are the most salient in the dispute resolution field.

It is hoped that this book will be useful for scholars, practitioners and students as a research tool. Each entry contains the author's name (if there is an author), title, and citation of the article. Additionally, a summary sentence and a list of descriptive search terms is included. An index is also included to research entries by the search terms. The JDR has also developed a computer searchable format for the Bibliographies.

Copies of the DISPUTE RESOLUTION: A SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1987-88 Edition are currently available from the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Dispute Resolution.
